

I'm writing to complain about Sinclair Broadcasting Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air political content before the election. This is a clear example of the widespread attempts to take over the media via corporate consolidation.

These are public airwaves being used free of charge. Stations are obligated by law to serve the public interest. When large companies control the airwaves, democracy suffers. It is more important to see views that matter to us locally and un-biased news.

Sinclair's actions show why we need to strengthen media ownership rules, not weaken them. They show why the license renewal process needs to involve more than a returned postcard. Thank you.
